

Empower Your Well-Being with Self-Guided iCBT Therapy

AllOne Health is excited to offer self-guided therapy through internet-based Cognitive Behavioral Therapy (iCBT) courses, thoughtfully developed by our AllOne Health clinical team.

These online courses are designed to help you take charge of your mental health and well-being. Whether used as standalone tools or in partnership with therapy sessions, these courses provide effective strategies to enhance your mental health journey.

What Are iCBT Courses?

iCBT is a proven, effective method for understanding and managing thoughts, emotions, and behaviors. Our self-guided courses are designed to help you:

- Reduce stress and anxiety.
- Build better coping strategies.
- Enhance emotional resilience.
- Improve overall mental health.

Why Choose Self-Guided Therapy?

- Flexible: Complete the courses at your own pace, anytime and anywhere.
- Accessible: Available 24/7 in the online member portal & app.
- Confidential: Your participation is private and secure.
- Proven Results: Backed by science to help improve mental health.
- Clinically Designed: Created by our AllOne Health clinical team to deliver practical, effective tools for standalone use or to complement therapy sessions.
